

Fr. Jim Harbaugh SJ

Father James Harbaugh, S.J. has been active in retreats for recovering people and other groups for several years, solo and with Fr. Tom Weston, S.J. He has been a Jesuit for 38 years and a Catholic priest for 25. He has a doctorate in English Literature from the University of Chicago; his retreats employ stories and poetry as their primary vehicle of communication. Until the summer of 2002 he taught in the Addiction Studies Program (one of the oldest in the world) at Seattle University. He was also Scholar in Residence at S.U.'s Law School, where he specialized in Values and Social Justice. He has been a Certified Chemical Dependency Counselor in the state of Washington. He is the author of two books of 12-Step meditations, A Twelve Step Approach to the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius (Sheed and Ward, 1998) and Not Hard to Swallow (Sheed and Ward, 2002) as well as a textbook on spirituality and addictions counseling, A Great, Clean Wind (in MS, written 1999). He is the co-author, with his brother and sister-in-law, of a book on reflections for grandparents. Fr. Jim is currently on staff at The Jesuit Retreat Center of Los Altos, CA. Past retreats of his are available on tape from InLight Productions. Jim has also released a single tape, "Living with Chronic Pain," also available from InLight.

*Dear God,
take me where you want me to go,
help me meet who you want me to meet,
tell me what you want me to say,
and keep me out of your way.*

Amen.
