A New Mexico Environment Department (ED) Permit will be required to sell food items at the Festival. This application is available from the State of New Mexico Environment Department Office, 1170 N. Solano Dr. Suite M, Las Cruces, NM 575 524 6300. There is no charge for a two day event. Those without a permit are liable if an inspector comes.

(New as of 2019) If you are selling just a couple of items then one person should have a food handler card and can train the rest. If you are selling a more extensive menu, like a restaurant, then you have to have a food manager on site

Please send this by mail with printed copy of application. New vendors can call to see if your application is accepted and then the full amount due is required to reserve your space.

RISK & LIABILITY: The vendor agrees to hold harmless the Holy Cross Retreat Center and any of its employees, directors, or volunteers from any damage or loss to exhibitor's property or any personal injury he/she or helpers may sustain during the event. HCRC will also be held harmless for any food illness traced back to vendor.

HCRC reserves the right to cancel the Franciscan Festival of Fine Arts due to bad weather, or unforeseen events out of the management's control, in which case HCRC will not be liable for refunds or other liabilities.

HCRC may use photographs/videos of the exhibitor taken by HCRC representatives for publicity purposes.

I have read, understand, and agree to all conditions and requirements set forth in this application and the Rules, Fees and Information sheets available at HCRC.
