Pilgrimage to early Franciscan Missions July 15-19, 2024

San Esteban Church, Acoma
Experience the Religious and art history of New Mexico

Holy Cross Retreat Center
600 Holy Cross Road
Mesilla Park, NM 88047

Shortly after the first Europeans came to what is now New Mexico in 1536, the friars began arriving, sharing the Catholic faith, and building churches.

This pilgrimage will provide time to visit and experience the missions mainly along the Camino Real, the road which followed the Rio Grande.

There will be time for background, input by local people, mass and prayer each day, and for quiet as well as exploring local culture and art. We expect to visit several missions, such as Española, Taos, Acoma, Ysleta, San Felipe in Albuquerque, and Socorro.

San Francisco de Asis Church in Rancho de Taos, where there is a fine presentation on the history and the art.

I expect to carpool, stay in a hotel and a retreat center (four nights total), and meals will be as chosen by individuals. Each person is responsible for your own costs, and a donation to the Retreat Center.

Fr. Tom Smith OFM Conv. director of Holy Cross Retreat Center, will be the main guide. We depart about 8:30am 22nd and return late afternoon of the 19th.

Call to talk with Fr. Tom for more details.
