

For me, the word “mysticism” simply means “experiential knowledge of spiritual things,” as opposed to book knowledge, secondhand knowledge or church knowledge.

Richard Rohr, OFM

During this retreat we will explore the coherent beauty and goodness of Franciscan mysticism as shared with us by Francis, Clare, Bonaventure, and John Duns Scotus.

Consider trying out our hermitage sometime, where you can have quiet time for prayer and rest and creativity for a few days or up to a month!

Labyrinth and a rosary walk are also on our grounds.

This weekend will offer a blend of prayer, insights into our Franciscan spiritual tradition, contemplative sharing, and time for rest, reflection, and journaling.

Hopefully, opening ourselves to the experiences and insights of the early Franciscan founders will help us “catch” more of the Spirit so powerfully at work in their lives.

We will also share meals together, and this is a good time to get to know each other and each others’ spiritual journeys more deeply.
